Moving in this semester?
Don't trash Berkeley!

The Cal Move-In Program
August 18th to September 4th, 2009
Special Move-In Curbside Pick-ups: Tuesdays and Thursdays***

*Pick-up area: Ridge Rd. to Derby St.; Prospect St. to Shattuck Ave.
 Curbside pick-ups limited to cardboard and other related packing materials

Recycle cardboard boxes.

1. Flatten your boxes and newspaper.
2. Bundle them together.
3. Place curbside on your recycling day.

Donate or sell your furniture, electronics, etc.

- Check out these helpful resources to recycle your unwanted items:
 The City of Berkeley's Reuse Guide lists local organizations that will accept furniture, appliances, and clothing. (<http://www.ci.berkeley.ca.us/pw/swm/reuseguide.pdf>)
 The Ecology Center's EcoDirectory can help you answer your recycling and reuse questions. (<http://www.ecologycenter.org/directory/>)
- Computers, televisions, stereos and electronic gadgets are hazardous waste. Never put them in garbage cans, debris bins or place curbside. The Alameda County Computer Resource Center picks up anything with a plug. Call 510-528-4052 or visit <http://www.acccr.org>.

Looking for quality furniture at rock-bottom prices?

Don't forget about the Bear-ly Used Bazaar!
 August 21-22, Lower Sproul Plaza

All proceeds benefit the Berkeley Food and Housing Project.

Project Review

Good Neighbor Program

- Brochure revised Spring 2009
- Review Distribution Plan

Dear Neighbor,

Welcome to Berkeley! Our neighborhoods are wonderful — lively, beautiful, with a diverse mix of students and families, homeowners and tenants.

The City of Berkeley and UC Berkeley have teamed up to promote good neighbor relations. Everyone can help by getting to know their neighbors and following local laws and practices.

Included in this booklet is helpful information for all Berkeley residents.

Welcome to the neighborhood!

UCPD/BPD Football Game Day Pilot Program

- Deployed for the Cal football home opener (Sept. 5) and the Cal-USC game (Oct. 3)
- Utilized the mobile command vehicle and officers from UCPD and BPD.
- Seventy-six citations issued on Sept. 5
- Will continue in 2010, if funding available
