

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION, AND FREE SPEECH AT BERKELEY

MONDAY, OCTOBER 23
5-6:30 P.M.
CHEVRON AUDITORIUM, I-HOUSE

UC Berkeley faculty, staff, students, parents, and alumni are invited to attend this moderated dialogue that will explore what free speech means on the Berkeley campus.

PEN America, our partner for this event, is a free expression organization with a track record of more than 90 years of cultivating dialogue and understanding that transcends social, political, and geographic boundaries. PEN has published And Campus for All, a report that underscores the need for reasoned discussion as well as more nuanced interchanges on the basis of mutual respect.

A Q&A will follow. There is no cost for admission.

Reservation is required.

To reserve your seat, visit <https://ucbevents.wufoo.com/forms/and-campus-for-all> or email mgoehring@berkeley.edu by Oct. 20.
