As a UC employee, you may have certain obligations to report what you learn about incidents of violence, abuse, neglect, discrimination and harassment, or other conduct that could be a violation of the law and/or University policy.

Reporting obligations enable the University to address and prevent harm. Please report any disclosed, witnessed, or suspected harm, even if you are unsure you are required to report it. The responsible office will determine whether the incident fits reporting criteria and next steps.

You may have more than one reporting obligation. For concerns that don't fit into one of these categories, you can use the Whistleblower Hotline.

The second page is intended to help you understand how to report.

If someone approaches you to talk about a difficult experience they had, it is important to respond with care and concern.

Listen actively and respond without blame, doubt, or judgment, and without attempting to investigate.

Let them know about your reporting obligations.

Connect the person with resources so they can get support and understand their rights and options.

For anyone affected by sexual violence and sexual harassment, a good place to start is the confidential PATH to Care Center. For 24/7 urgent support, please call the Care Line at 510-643-2005.
